Re: Transfer of Patent Rights

Dear Erik:

This Letter Agreement is intended to provide for the transfer of certain patent application rights from Spur Products Corp.'s ("Spur") to Océ-USA, Inc. ("Océ"). These patent application rights ("Patent Rights") relate to a Network Document Delivery System ("Technology"), formerly embodied in Spur's OutPost product and now exclusively licensed to Océ-USA and marketed as the Océ Office Exec product. In this letter, (i) Océ and Spur are sometimes called the "Parties" and (ii) Spur's transfer of, and potential re-purchase of, the Patent Rights is sometimes called the "Transaction".

The Parties wish to conclude this Transaction due to the imminent international patent application filing deadline for the Technology. On October 20, 1998 Spur filed patent application 09/175,905 with the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Thereafter, Spur and Océ entered into an exclusive Software License and Transfer Agreement dated May 17, 1999 (the "Software Agreement"). In exchange for a minimum license fee payment obligation, the Software Agreement provided Océ with the exclusive, worldwide right to license the Technology. Further, Océ was granted the right to acquire all rights to the Technology upon payment of the minimum license fee payment and Océ's election. It is, therefore, in Océ's ultimate interest to proceed with international patent protection for the Technology.

In recognition of Océ's rights and interests, Spur is willing to transfer all Patent Rights in the Technology prior to the actual transfer of Technology ownership so that Océ can seek international patent protection for the Technology. Therefore, in reliance upon Océ's payment of outstanding consideration provided for in the Software Agreement (i.e. license fees), Spur hereby transfers all rights to patent application 09/175,905 to Océ. In the event Océ does not purchase the Technology on or before May 17, 2001 as provided in the Software Agreement, then Spur shall have the exclusive retained right to re-purchase the Patent Rights, including any additional rights obtained through the filing of an international patent application, from Océ or its assignee for the sum of One Dollar ($1.00). Furthermore, Spur acknowledges and grants Océ the right to transfer the Patent Rights obtained in this Transaction to Océ-Technologies B.V., Venlo, Netherlands.

This Letter Agreement is the sole document that defines the understanding between the parties on the transfer of Patent Rights. This Letter Agreement supersedes all other oral or written agreements, understandings, representations and warranties, courses of conduct and dealing between the parties related to the transfer of Patent Rights and may be amended or modified only by a writing executed by all of the parties. This Letter Agreement, and any disputes arising from or related hereto, is governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Idaho without regard to conflicts of laws principles. This Letter Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Letter Agreement and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement.

If you are in agreement with the foregoing, please sign and return one copy of this Letter Agreement, which thereupon will constitute our agreement with respect to its subject matter.

Very truly yours,

SPUR PRODUCTS CORP.
